Taking the gospel to the local community and abroad. Mark 16:15

Summer is here finally...and so is VBS

Why do we have VBS? To spread the word of God! To engage members who may not otherwise be active in the congregation. There is a job for EVERYONE at VBS. Another reason is to provide an opportunity to bring friends, family, and the community into our building. We are happy to report that we had a lot of visitors from the community to attend our VBS this year.

Here is what we did. It might work for you: 3 day VBS Monday – Wednesday, 9am to 12 noon. Finally on Wednesday evening a program was put on by the kids (of course their parents/grandparents attended). We ended with a hamburger/hotdog dinner. With a lot of older members, daytime worked well for us. Our kids like to see themselves in print!

Miss Faith Freeman, 91years old, remembers taking her little kiddy to VBS as a child. She remembers attending both Corinth CoC in Woodleaf, NC and in later years at Broad Street CoC in Statesville, NC.

Austen Braddy from Withville, VA stayed with us that week to attend VBS

SPEAKING OPPORTUNITIES

Tri-City School of Preaching LECTURESHIPS

I was privileged to speak at the Tri-City School of Preaching Lectureships in June. My topic was 'Providing for Things Honest,' 2 Cor. 8:21. It was good to see old acquaintances that I had not seen in a while. I love speaking at the lectureship because, when you step behind that pulpit, it brings back so many memories of school. Pictured below (L to R) are Eddy Craft, myself, Eddy Braddy, and Ethan Tate.

I continue to work with the Concord Church Road CoC in Stuart, VA alongside Tim Horton, who is helping in this effort.

At Broad Street CoC in Statesville, NC, I was privileged to speak in their adult class for VBS.

At North Main Brother Ryan McClannon has stepped in to fill the pulpit on Sundays. It is always a pleasure to see someone you taught in Sunday School grow into this position. I am usually the Wednesday night teacher.

We have a Monday night class in Mocksville that will resume after Labor Day and the topic is TBA.

We are Excited to Announce
We are again working on some mission trips. Because of Deborah's heart problems we have decided to stay a little closer to home so both St. Kitts & Nevis, and Cuba this coming winter. There will be more in the next news letter. Please keep these efforts in your prayers.

Chelsea Holland (pictured far left), one of our young ladies from North Main, went with us to Stuart and taught a Bible marking class to our young ladies. Chelsea is doing good works for the Lord. She has been to the Camp at Bear Valley for girls and spends almost every week in the summer at Carolina Bible Camp. This fall she goes to college. Good luck, Chelsea! We will miss you!!!
